TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

Non-Subsidy Companies are organizations that are not contributing to offset membership dues for employees. These organizations must participate in a quarterly employee verification process (March, June, August and November of each year) to ensure all records of employees receiving preferred pricing benefits are accurate. All employees will pay standard joining fees and prorated dues for all membership types, standard membership benefits apply.

Subsidy Companies are organizations that are contributing financially to reduce monthly membership dues for employees, minimum of $5 month subsidy or reimbursement per employee is required. Individual YMCAs reserve the right to set a required minimum number of participants for monthly invoicing.

Employee Verification is the responsibility of the employer. Notification of any changes to individual membership accounts must come in writing on or before the 20th of the current month. Any changes to individual memberships requested after the 20th of the month will be effective the following month.

Annual Fees for Corporate Membership must be paid to remain active for the following 12 calendar months. Membership rates and the subsidy amounts provided by the YMCA may vary and are subject to change with adequate notification from the YMCA (30 days). Invoices for membership and/or programs must be paid within 15 days to avoid late fees being added to your account.

Sex Offender Screenings: The YMCA conducts regular sex offender screenings on all member, participants and guests. If a sex offender match occurs, the YMCA reserves the right to cancel membership, end program participation and remove visitation access.

The Y reserves the right to cancel a membership at any time. Any organization, member, guest, or applicant whose actions are not deemed to be in the best interests of the organization may have their membership or application denied.

All employees activating a membership with the YMCA must agree to the Conditions of Facility Use as indicated on the membership Enrollment form.
